

Welcome to Kramfors!

CHECKLIST FOR EU-CITIZENS

WELCOME TO KRAMFORS!

Right of residence

If you want to live in Sweden for a longer period than three months, you have to apply for a right of residence. To do that, fill out the application form number 140011 from the Swedish Migration Board. The application form can be found at www.migrationsverket.se. You can also order the form by calling the Swedish Migration Board, 0771-19 44 00, or sending an email to upplysningen@migrationsverket.se.

You always have to include a copy of your passport or ID-card with the application. Depending on the terms on which you are here (as a student, employee, self-employed person or as a person with sufficient funds for your keep), include documents that confirm your status.

Person number

If you are going to live in Sweden for more than one year, visit Skatteverket to get nationally registered at your address in Sweden and apply for a Swedish person number. Always bring your passport or ID-card.

Skatteverket in Kramfors is located at Viktoriagatan 14.

Opening hours: Monday-Friday 10.00-16.00.

Website: www.skatteverket.se

If your family (husband, wife, common-law spouse or children) live in another country or if you partly work and live in another country than Sweden, you cannot get nationally registered in Sweden or apply for a person number.

Co-ordination number

If your family (husband, wife, common-law spouse or children) live in another country than Sweden, or if you partly work and live in another country, you can get a co-ordination number instead of a person number. To apply for a co-ordination number, visit Skatteverket in Kramfors. Address and opening hours are to be found above.

The Swedish Social Insurance Agency

When you have a person number, please visit the Swedish Social Insurance Agency. Their office in Kramfors is located at Viktoriagatan 14, opening hours are Monday-Friday 10.00-16.00. You have to make the registration to have right to different benefits and allowances, like child allowance and sickness allowance. The registration itself doesn't necessarily mean that you have the right to these allowances, the agency tries each case individually. www.forsakringskassan.se

SFI - Swedish For Immigrants

Studiecentrum in Kramfors arranges courses in Swedish for people that move here from other countries. Visit SFI at Ådalsskolan in Kramfors, entrance A, Monday- Friday from 08.15. You can also call 0612-804 88. SFI closes for summer holiday from the beginning of June until the middle of August. The SFI courses are free of charge.

Studiefrämjandet in Ullånger also arranges courses in Swedish. For more information, call Studiefrämjandet at 0613-109 56.

Work in Sweden

Do you want to find a job in Sweden? The first step is to visit the Swedish Public Employment Service. In Kramfors the local office is located at Viktoriagatan 14, open Monday-Friday 10.00-16.00. www.arbetsformedlingen.se

There are special rules if you want to bring your unemployment benefit from your home country, ask the employment office for information.

Starting a business

If you want to start your own business, there are lots of important things to keep in mind. At Kramfors kommun, there are staffmembers who work with helping people that want to start up their own business. Call 0612-800 00 and ask for Tillväxtenheten for further information, or send an e-mail to tillvaxt@kramfors.se.

You can also visit Tillväxtverket (the Swedish Agency for Economic and Regional Growth) on the internet: www.tillvaxtverket.se. They have a "starting business-guide" in English.

Pension

To earn the right to pension in Sweden, you have to work and pay taxes here. You are allowed to bring pension from your home country when you move to Sweden. Call or send an e-mail The Swedish Social Insurance Agency (Försäkringskassan) for more information: kundcenter@forsakringskassan.se, or phone 0771-524 524.

Insurances

If you want to sign a home insurance, car insurance or any other insurance, there are a lot of insurance companies to choose from.

Three insurance companies have offices that you can visit within Kramfors municipality. You find Länsförsäkringar on Stationsgatan 15 and Folksam on Aspåsvägen 1 (2 km outside Kramfors city). Dina Försäkringar Höga Kusten is located at Klockarvägen 12, Nordingrå.

Bringing your car to Sweden

Do you want to bring your car to Sweden and have it registered here? Then the first step is to contact the Swedish Transport Agency to do an "Application for verification of origin". You can do the application online, on this web address:

<https://www21.vv.se/BfsUkWebansokanextern/Startpage.aspx>

You can also contact the Swedish Transport Agency on telephone 0771-141516 or send an e-mail to kontakt@transportstyrelsen.se.

To do an "Application for verification of origin" you need a Swedish person number. The cost of doing the application is 500 SEK, you will pay in advance by paying a bill that the Swedish Transport Agency sends you.

When the Swedish Transport Agency has approved of your application, you have to contact the Swedish Motor Vehicle Inspection Company (Bilprovningen) to make an appointment for an inspection of the car. In Kramfors, the Swedish Motor Vehicle Company is located at Företagsvägen 3, opening hours are 08.00-16.00.

You can read more about the Swedish Motor Vehicle Inspection Company in several different languages on www.bilprovningen.se.

Hi and welcome to Kramfors!

This brochure is for you who recently have moved to Kramfors from another EU-country. We would like to take to the opportunity to welcome you a little extra!

As a new inhabitant in Kramfors it is important to find the right contacts in order to build a strong social network. To make it easier for you, Kramfors kommun has hired a special person that works with newcomer service. The relocation assistant has the function of being a link between you and companies, associations and other parts of the society. It is not always easy to know where to go or whom to ask about labour market, schools, places to live and so on. The relocation assistant gives you all the necessary answers and contacts.

You can reach the relocation assistant on 0612-80000.
